

SHERLOCKS 'a singular set of recipes, Watson'

'THE GAMES AFOOT'

Cold...

Pate of foie gras, Mycroft-inspired by jaunts in France £6.45

Fresh Prawn Cocktail - 489,428,468 prawns (shrimps actually) were sold in Billingsgate market in 1851. We offer you somewhat fewer but combined with a home made and original piquant sauce

£4.90

Smoked Seafood, Garrideb - A selection of smoked fish and scallop, with dips of light cheese and horseradish cream.

£5.95

Salad of Avocado and large prawns, Boscombe Valley £5.90

Hot...

A Choice of Home Made Soups - ' Ah Watson, the Soup!'

£3.90 to £4.50

Chicken Livers Sutro - lightly cooked in Marsala £4.95

Soft shell crab Boscombe Valley- deep fried and served with citrus wedges

£6.85

Warm Salad Norbury - green salad with bacon and bread croutons and topped with a poached free range egg

£4.85

Squid Morstan - Mary Morstan captured JHW with this delicious dish of baby squid, deep fried in a home made crispy batter and served with a dip.

£5.35

Mushrooms Stanley Hopkins - Sherlock favoured this young Inspector and described his mushrooms as having 'very few weaknesses.....' Served either stuffed with bacon or with cheese £4.55

Goats' Cheese Riddlethorpe - grilled goats cheese on fruit bread with onion confit £4.85

Garlic Prawns, Gillespy - large prawns, cooked in butter, olive oil and garlic, and with chilli if requested £6.55

Coquilles St. Jacques - scallops in a cream sauce, as prepared in Brittany. As eaten by SH when looking up his dear friend Gauguin in Pont Aven £6.55

Fritto Misto Count Sylvius - A selection of deep fried seafood served with a dip £5.95